DANIEL SAVED FROM THE LION'S DEN

PROPHECY
PROOF
PROVISION

The Holy Spirit gave Paul a prophetic prediction – that in the end times, people will fade into 18 primary symptoms of denying the power of the indwelling Life of Jesus. The closer we approach the Tribulation of Satan, the more intense the temptation to delude into lukewarmness.

FAKE BELIEVERS

THOSE WHO DENY THE POWER OF HIS INDWELLING

As a result, our Lord frequently throws these types of believers into the lion's den of sorts to experience the power of Christ from within. However, many thrown in simply become lunch for the lions. On the other hand, some resurrect from the den with a renewed trust in the power of God. We call it separating the goats from the sheep.

DANIEL SAVED FROM THE LION'S DEN

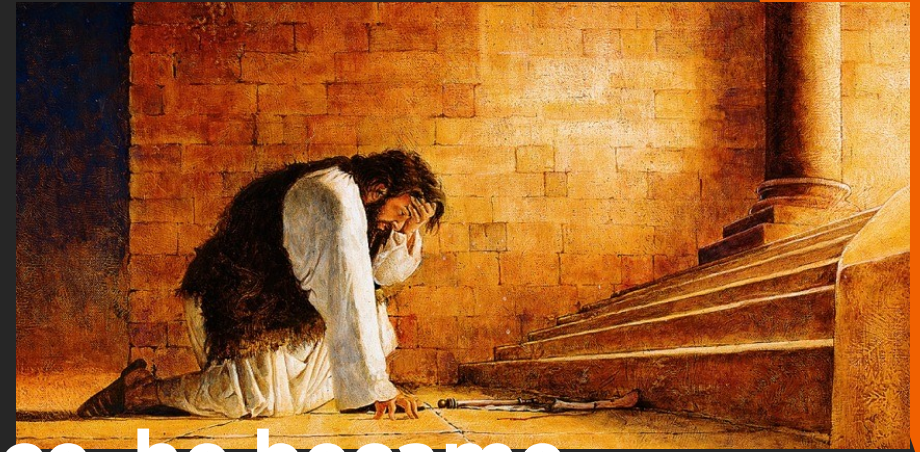

The background features a large, semi-circular seal of the United States Department of Justice. The seal is dark with a central eagle with wings spread, holding an olive branch and arrows. The eagle is surrounded by a ring of stars. The seal is partially obscured by an orange diagonal shape on the left side of the slide.

REVIEWING OUR SCRIPTURES

STUDY CHAPTER SIX
KEY VERSES
6:19-22

"Then the king arose at dawn, at the break of day, and went in haste to the lions' den. When he had come near the den to Daniel, he cried out with a troubled voice. The king spoke and said to Daniel, 'Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you constantly serve, been able to deliver you from the lions?' Then Daniel spoke to the king, 'O king, live forever!' My God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths and they have not harmed me, inasmuch as I was found innocent before Him; and also toward you, O king, I have committed no crime.'"

THE KING IS RESTLESS

After the king returned to his palace, he became restless, saddened, and anxious about being trapped by his advisors and the fact that he had to keep the law - signed by his hand. He could not eat, sleep, or be humored by entertainment. He was brought to the core of regret. This was the king's personal experience of his own lion's den.

THE KING RUNS TO THE TOMB OF THE LIONS

Kings don't carry out their own orders – they send their officers to do such messy stuff. This was not the case with Darius. He didn't send an officer to see if Daniel was dead or alive. This dignified king hastened to the lion's den to check Daniel's status personally. With this in mind, before he arrives at the den, he cries out to his friend, Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you constantly serve, been able to deliver you from the lions? Without hesitation, Daniel shouts out the familiar words the king was accustomed to hearing, "O king, live forever!" Can you imagine the relief of the king?

THE ANGEL OF SALVATION

We are not told the moment the angel of God arrives to save Daniel. However, we know that the lions have not been fed for seven days. They were starving. Likely, the angel was there before Daniel arrived in the den. Furthermore, as to the IF Daniel was honored with the experience of seeing the angel, well, it doesn't matter. The fact that Daniel was delivered from the mouths of the lions is enough.

DANIEL DELIVERED FROM THE TOMB

As in the case of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego was delivered from the fiery furnace without a single hair on their heads scorched, so was Daniel delivered from the lion's den. While humanity tends to focus on Daniel and his faith, honestly, it wasn't about Daniel.

THE KING'S PROCLAMATION

"I make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men are to fear and tremble before the God of Daniel; For He is the living God and enduring forever, and His kingdom is one which will not be destroyed, and His dominion will be forever. He delivers and rescues and performs signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, who has also delivered Daniel from the power of the lions."

DANIEL | THE TALE OF FOUR KINGS

IN CONCLUSION

Always remember, the miracles which the Lord performs in the interest of His children are intended to serve, among other things, for the unbelievers, so that they also may realize that the God of Israel, the God of the graphed indwelt Christians, is the true, living God, the only Savior, and Redeemer.

#18 DANIEL'S VISIONS & DREAMS

DANIEL | THE TALE OF FOUR KINGS

It's Daniel's turn to dream dreams. It all starts with a vision of four beasts, which are played out in Revelation's book. Now in a time of respite, Daniel focuses on his writing. However, before such writing can occur, a few dreams and visions must be revealed.
